Frequently Asked Questions related to
YES SECURITIES Trading A/c

Sr No.	FAQ	Process
1.	YSL Related: If I sell the stocks through YSL, the money will get credited to my linked YES Bank account. How do I avoid taking payout in YES Bank account?	Answer: YSL has emailed you a form which you need to fill and submit to nearest YSL Branch / RM in physical (scanned images will not be accepted) along with a cancelled cheque of the account which you intend to link to the YSL Trading account. The given account will be mapped as the primary account for executing the transactions. The mapping will take 48 working hours. Post this, all the sale proceeds will start getting credited to the new linked primary bank account.
2.	YSL Related: Will My dividends also start coming to the new linked bank account	No. The dividends will come to the bank account linked to the Demat account. You need to give a separate request to link another bank account to your Demat account.
3.	YSL Related: Can I continue buying and selling through my YSL trading account	All clients are allowed to trade against fully-paid funds/securities. YSL will also consider all ledger credit balances to give exposures to buy under fully-paid delivery positions. Further ,all fresh positions will be allowed based on transfer of funds from other primary accounts of the client maintained with any other bank subject to the same getting linked with YSL trading account. Client can link another bank account with YSL trading account after completing the KYC formalities (by giving a change in bank account request along with a cancelled cheque and then continue trading (both buy and sell) through YSL trading platform. This linking of another bank account will take 48 hours. A separate email communication has been shared to the clients wrt-

Sr No.	FAQ	Process
		1) To link new Bank account maintained with other Bank to receive payouts 2) To Transfer the funds to YSL's new Bank account maintained with ICICI bank to meet the exchange margin obligations as well as for fresh positions.

--END OF DOCUMENT--