The purpose of this literature/presentation is to provide general information to prospective investors in a manner to assist them in making investment decision. It does not purport to contain all the information that the prospective investor may require. The literature/presentation is made for informational purposes only and should not be regarded as an official opinion of any kind or a recommendation. It does not constitute an offer, solicitation or an invitation to the public in general to invest in the AIF. This literature/presentation is intended for the use of prospective investor(s) only to whom it is addressed and who is/are willing and are eligible to invest in AIF. The information contained in this literature/presentation is obtained from sources believed to be reliable. There is a risk of substantial loss associated with trading in Futures, Options, Leverage etc. Before investing, please carefully consider your financial position and risk tolerance to determine if the proposed trading style is appropriate. Seek appropriate financial advice before investing in this Product. Investors should realise that when engaging in leverage, trading in Futures, and/or granting/writing options one could lose the full balance of their account. All funds committed should purely be risk capital. The Portfolio Risk Management process includes an effort to monitor and manage risk but should not be confused with and does not imply low risk. An investment in the Fund involves certain risks that may not be associated with other investment vehicles. These risk factors are not meant to be an exhaustive list of all potential risks associated with an investment in the Fund:

Risks in relation to the Hedge Fund Strategies: Hedging strategies in general are usually intended to limit or reduce investment risk, but can also be expected to limit or reduce the potential for profit. No assurance can be given that any particular hedging strategy will be successful.

Portfolio Risk: The Fund will endeavour to have a fair degree of diversification in its asset type with varying exit horizons. However, poor performance by even a few of these investments could lead to adverse effects on the Fund's overall returns.

Market Risk: Stock markets are volatile and may decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market or economic developments. Other parameters that could impact it includes liquidity in securities, volume of transactions etc. Different parts of the market and securities may react differently to such developments.

Model Risk: The Investment Manager will select equities and equity-related securities using a quantitative selection process. This selection process involves the Investment Manager creating investment model by ranking and scoring equities and equity related securities based on various factors such as volatility, momentum, mean-reversion, fundamentals and market sentiment/momentum. Such an investment model may not be able to generate target returns and could lead to significant losses. Any change in the factors initially considered by the Investment Manager for constructing the models could have negative impact on NAV.

Management and Operational Risks: The Investment Manager shall manage the assets of the Fund and will take its investments and disinvestments decisions exclusively. The Contributors will not be able to make investment or other decisions in connection with the Fund. There can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve its investment objectives.

Please refer to the PPM for detailed information on Risk Factors and Potential Conflicts Of Interest. Past performance is no indication of future performance and no representation / warranty, express or implied is made regarding future performance. Securities investment are subject to market risk and is dependent on prevalent market factors, liquidity and credit conditions. We do not represent that any information, including any third party information, is accurate or complete and it should not be relied upon without proper investigation on the part of the investor(s). YES Securities (India) Limited or any of its director(s) or employees does not assure/give guarantee for any accuracy of any of the facts/interpretations in this document, and shall not be liable to any person including the beneficiary for any claim or demand for damages or otherwise in relation to this opinion or its contents.

This literature/presentation is qualified in its entirety by the Information Memorandum/PPM and other related documents, copies of which will be provided to prospective investors. All investors must read the detailed Private Placement Memorandum (PPM) including the Risk Factors and consult their financial/investment/tax advisors, before making any investment decision/contribution to AIF. Capitalised terms used herein shall have the meaning assigned to such terms in the PPM and other documents. Please note that the said literature/presentation is only for understanding the proposed terms of the scheme. For more details, refer PPM.
